

CYA Prescriptions 2005–2008

The CYA prescribes:

To the list of Appendices in the table of contents

Q Excerpts from the International Regulations for Preventing Collisions at Sea

To the Introduction, under Changes to the Rules

Prescriptions of the Canadian Yachting Association are printed in large italics.

To Part 2 – When Boats Meet (insert after the preamble)

CYA has provided Appendix Q for guidance when the International Regulations for Preventing Collisions at Sea apply.

Rule 61.2 – Protest Contents

CYA prescribes that no fee shall be charged for filing a protest or a request for redress.

Rule 64.3 – Decisions on Measurement Protests (insert directly under the title to the rule)

CYA prescribes that the ISAF Equipment Rules of Sailing 2005–2008 shall apply to all classes racing in Canada.

Rule 68 – Damages

CYA prescribes that the owner of a boat shall be liable for all damages arising from a breach of these rules, not exceeding in amount and subject to the same limitations as provided by the Canada Shipping Act. A breach of these rules shall be considered improper navigation within the meaning and purposes of that Act.

Rule 70.4 (a) – Appeals; Confirmation or Correction of Decisions; Rule Interpretations

CYA so prescribes.

Rule 87 – Changes to National Authority Prescriptions

CYA prescribes that sailing instructions of national or lesser events shall not change or delete any CYA prescription. For international events in Canada, sailing instructions shall not change or delete the prescriptions to rules 61.2, 68 and the preamble to Appendix F.

App. E5.5(a) (f) – Redress

CYA prescribes that the definition of entanglement includes the case where boats subsequently become disentangled without outside help.

App. E6 – Identification on Sails (insert directly under title to the rule)

CYA prescribes that this rule applies to Canadian boats in all classes.

Appendix F – Appeals Procedures (insert after the preamble)

CYA may delegate an appeal or a request for confirmation or correction to a yacht racing association or provincial sailing association as appropriate. A decision of a yacht racing or provincial sailing association may be further appealed or referred to the CYA.

App. F2.2(e) – Submission of Documents

CYA prescribes that in the case of a further appeal to the national authority this rule shall apply to the appellant as though it was an initial appeal and to the appealed committee as though it was the protest committee.

CYA Prescriptions as amended are effective as of 15 March 2007
